FICTIONAL CASE - NOT A REAL PATIENT
Case: holdout-06 | Document: back-review | Page: 1
Back pain clinic review
Document date: 2025-07-22
Lower back pain began after lifting a box on 2025-07-10.
The patient denies new bowel or bladder symptoms today.
Current medication reported: paracetamol 500 mg as needed, up to three times daily.
Allergy recorded today: chlorhexidine causes a rash; reaction date is not supplied.
No structural diagnosis is assigned in this note.